

If the Frontier Services Bush Chaplain wasn't here, it would have all been too much and I wouldn't be here."

Elaine's* Bush Chaplain drives a 400 km round trip just to see her. They have a cuppa together, they talk. There are often tears. They pray.

Elaine's husband had died, and then she got Parkinson's and began to develop dementia. She had to sell her property and pack up 40 years of memories to go into aged care.

No one should have to do that alone.

That's why Bush Chaplains are so vital. And that's why your kindness is so important. But our Bush Chaplains cannot meet the urgent need and cannot cover enough kilometres in a day.

We must make sure we are there for people like Elaine, no matter how far the distance. As we strive to be there for everyone who needs help, it is an enormous relief to know that you are there for people like Elaine.

Please donate now to help keep our Bush Chaplains on the road.

Frontier Services is an agency of the Uniting Church in Australia. Established by Rev John Flynn, we have been providing practical, emotional, and spiritual support to people in rural and remote Australia for over 110 years. Your generous donations enable Bush Chaplains and Outback Links volunteers to keep turning up for people in the outback who need a hand.
