Flynn of the Inland

Excerpt taken from The Man on the Twenty Dollar
Notes: Flynn of the Inland
by Everald Compton

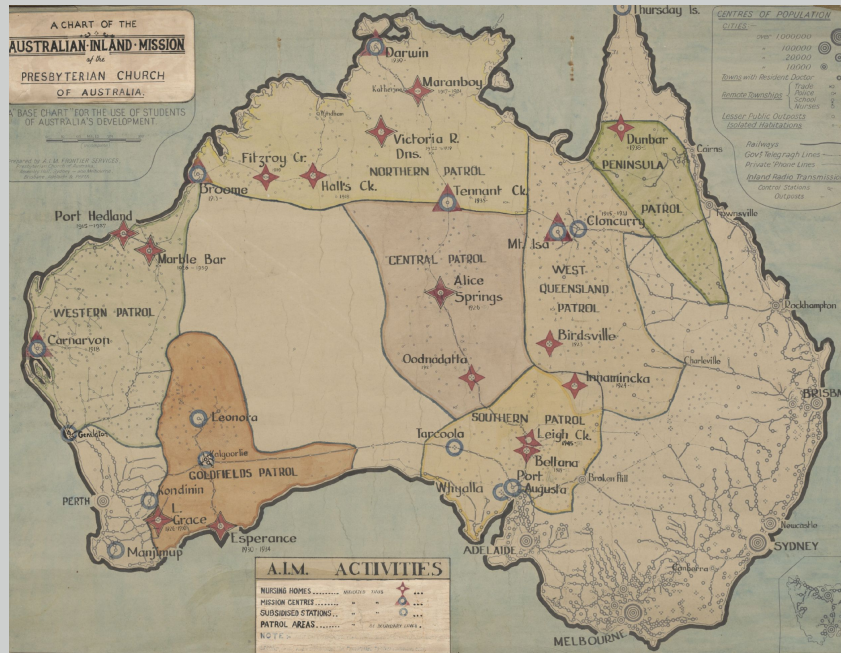

Flynn of the Inland

Flynn happily recalled one pleasant Sunday when he attended a morning service here as one of the congregation.

Flynn of the Inland

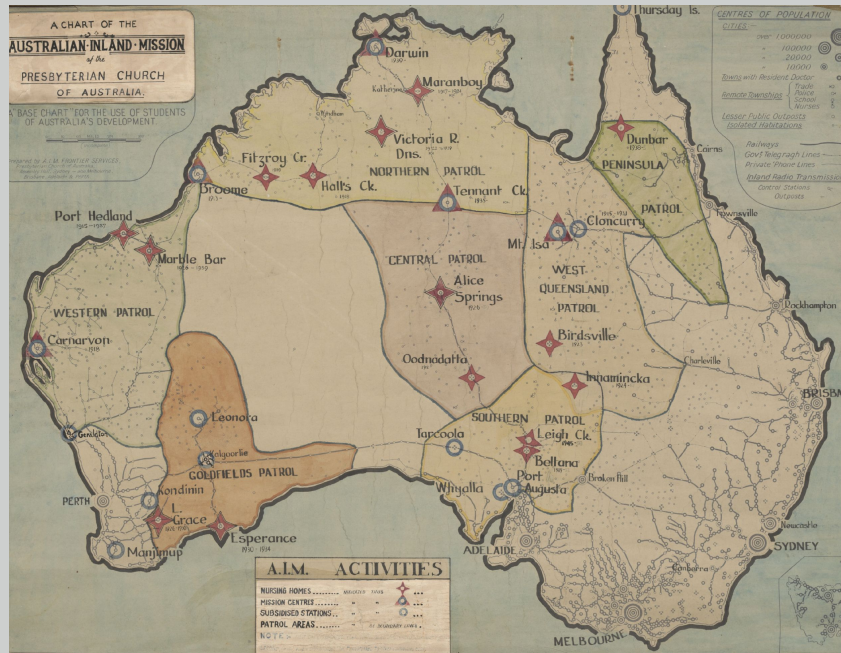

As he walked outside at the conclusion of worship, not wearing his clerical collar, an elderly woman approached him.

Flynn of the Inland

She was totally unaware of who he was.

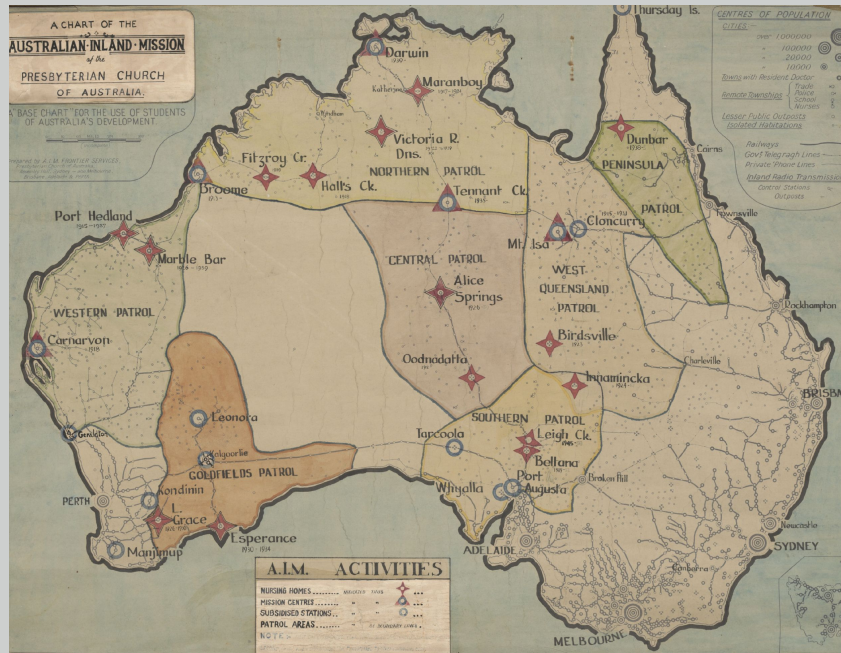

“My friends tell me that you are a clergyman, sir,” the woman said.

Flynn of the Inland

“Yes, I am,” Flynn replied politely.

“And where is your congregation located?” she asked.

Flynn of the Inland

Flynn waved his arms towards the horizon.

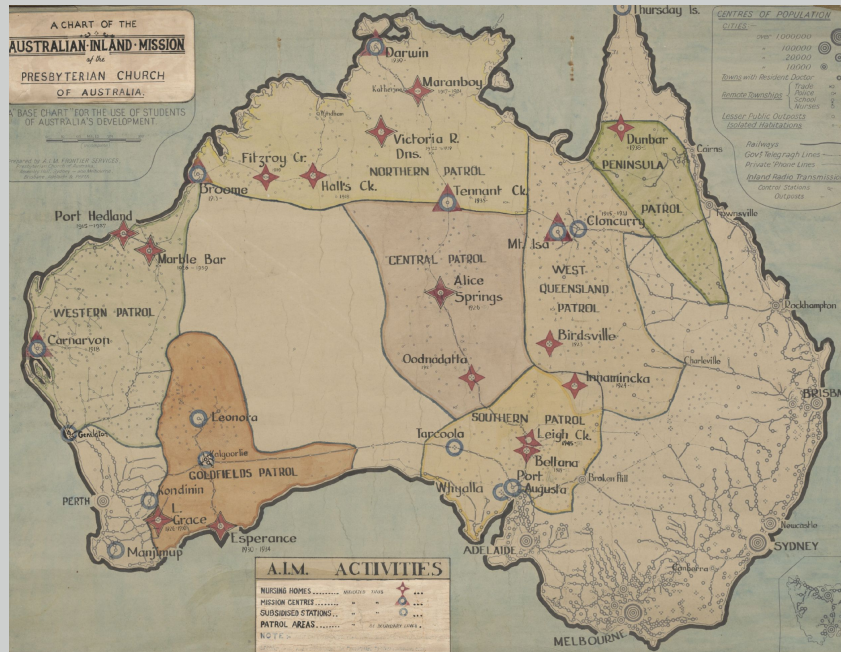

"Out there where the sun goes down," he said.

"So, it is a country parish. Is it a large one?"

Flynn of the Inland

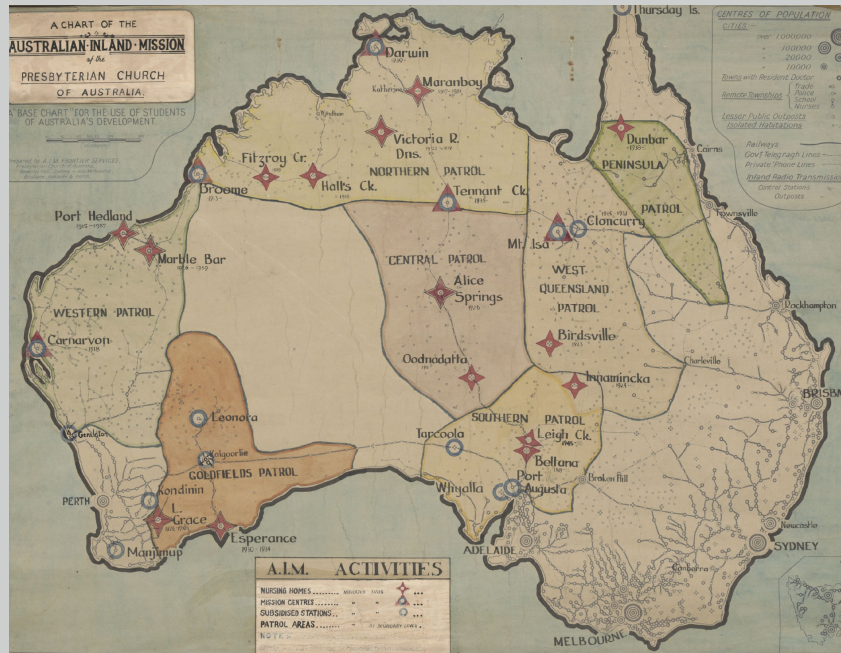

“Actually, it is the largest in Australia.

It covers about 80% of the continent.”

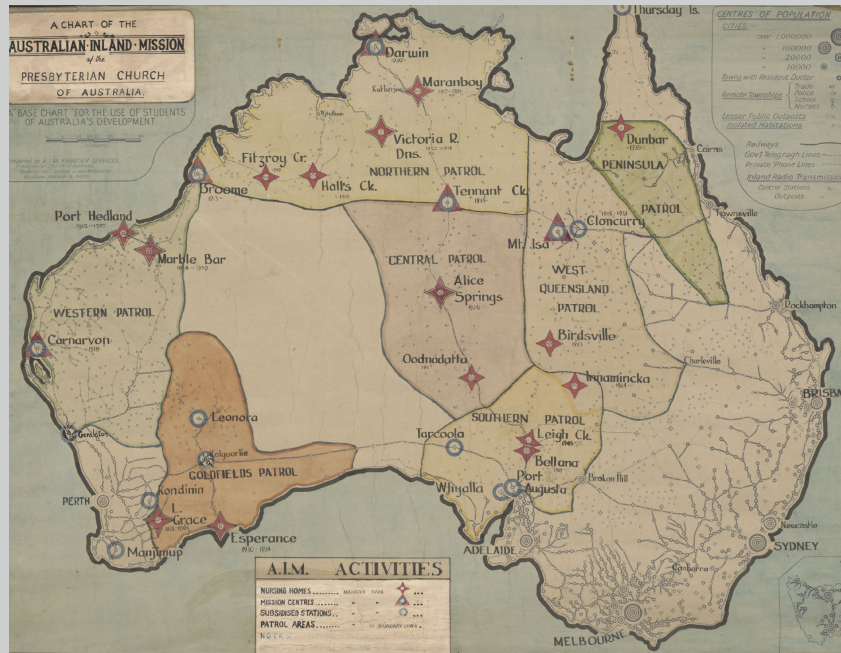

Flynn of the Inland

Her eyes widened in amazement, so he gave her the brief version of the Australian Inland Mission's work.

Flynn of the Inland

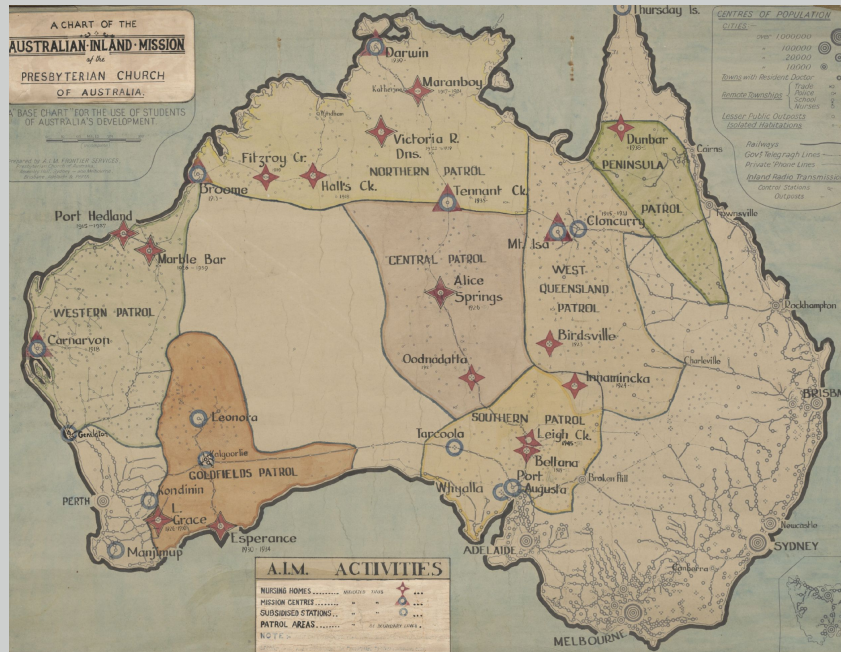

“Oh, my goodness me, you are Flynn of the Inland,” she stammered.

“Actually, I am just John Flynn, a bush parson.”

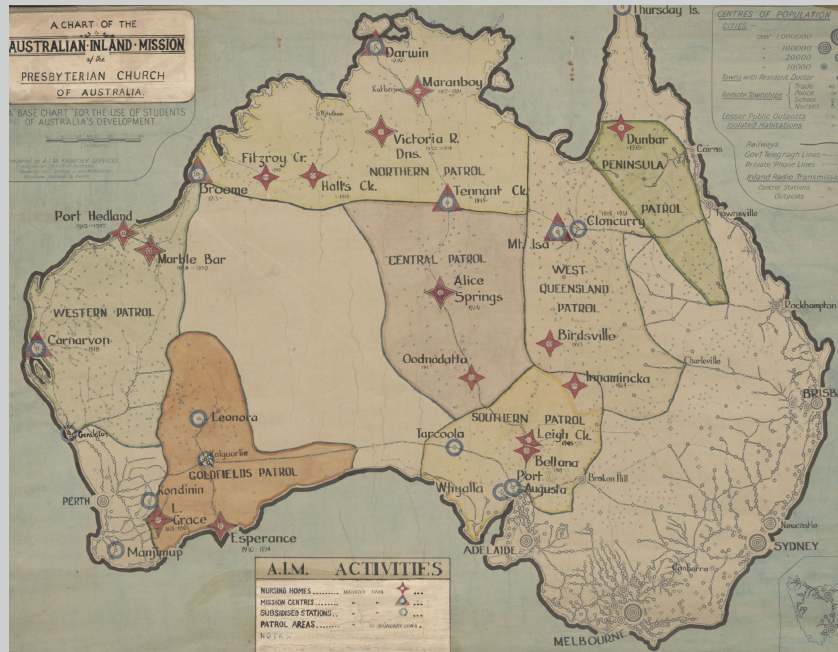

Flynn of the Inland

“I really don’t know what to say, Mr Flynn. I find it hard to comprehend that one man could have dreamed this vision, let alone achieved it.”

Flynn of the Inland

"It has not been too difficult. I have had many wonderful helpers."

Psalm 23:1-6

The Lord is my Shepherd

The Lord is my shepherd, I shall not want.
He makes me lie down in green pastures;
he leads me beside still waters;
He restores my soul.

Continued...

The background of the slide features a soft, hazy sunset over a body of water. The sky is a mix of light orange, yellow, and pale blue. In the foreground, the dark silhouette of a person is seen walking away from the viewer towards the horizon. The overall mood is peaceful and contemplative.

He leads me in right paths
For his name's sake.

Even though I walk through the darkest valley,
I fear no evil;
For you are with me;

Your rod and your staff-
They comfort me.

Continued...

You prepare a table before me
In the presence of my enemies;
You anoint my head with oil;
My cup overflows.

Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all
The days of my life,
And I shall dwell in the house of the Lord
My whole life long.

Luke 24:13-35

The Walk to Emmaus

Now on that same day two of them were going to a village called Emmaus, about seven miles from Jerusalem, and talking with each other about all these things that had happened.

Continued...

While they were talking and discussing, Jesus himself came near and went with them, but their eyes were kept from recognizing him. And he said to them, "What are you discussing with each other while you walk along?"

Continued...

They stood still, looking sad.

Then one of them, whose name was Cleopas, answered him, "Are you the only stranger in Jerusalem who does not know the things that have taken place there in these days?"

Continued...

He asked them, “What things?” They replied, “The things about Jesus of Nazareth, who was a prophet mighty in deed and word before God and all the people, and how our chief priests and leaders handed him over to be condemned to death and crucified him.

Continued...

But we had hoped that he was the one to redeem Israel. Yes, and besides all this, it is now the third day since these things took place.

Continued...

Moreover, some women of our group astounded us. They were at the tomb early this morning, and when they did not find his body there, they came back and told us that they had indeed seen a vision of angels who said that he was alive.

Continued...

Some of those who were with us went to the tomb and found it just as the women had said; but they did not see him.”

Continued...

Then he said to them, “Oh, how foolish you are, and how slow of heart to believe all that the prophets have declared! Was it not necessary that the Messiah should suffer these things and then enter into his glory?”

Continued...

Then beginning with Moses and all the prophets, he interpreted to them the things about himself in all the scriptures.

As they came near the village to which they were going, he walked ahead as if he were going on.

Continued...

But they urged him strongly, saying, "Stay with us, because it is almost evening and the day is now nearly over."

So he went in to stay with them. When he was at the table with them, he took bread, blessed and broke it, and gave it to them.

Continued...

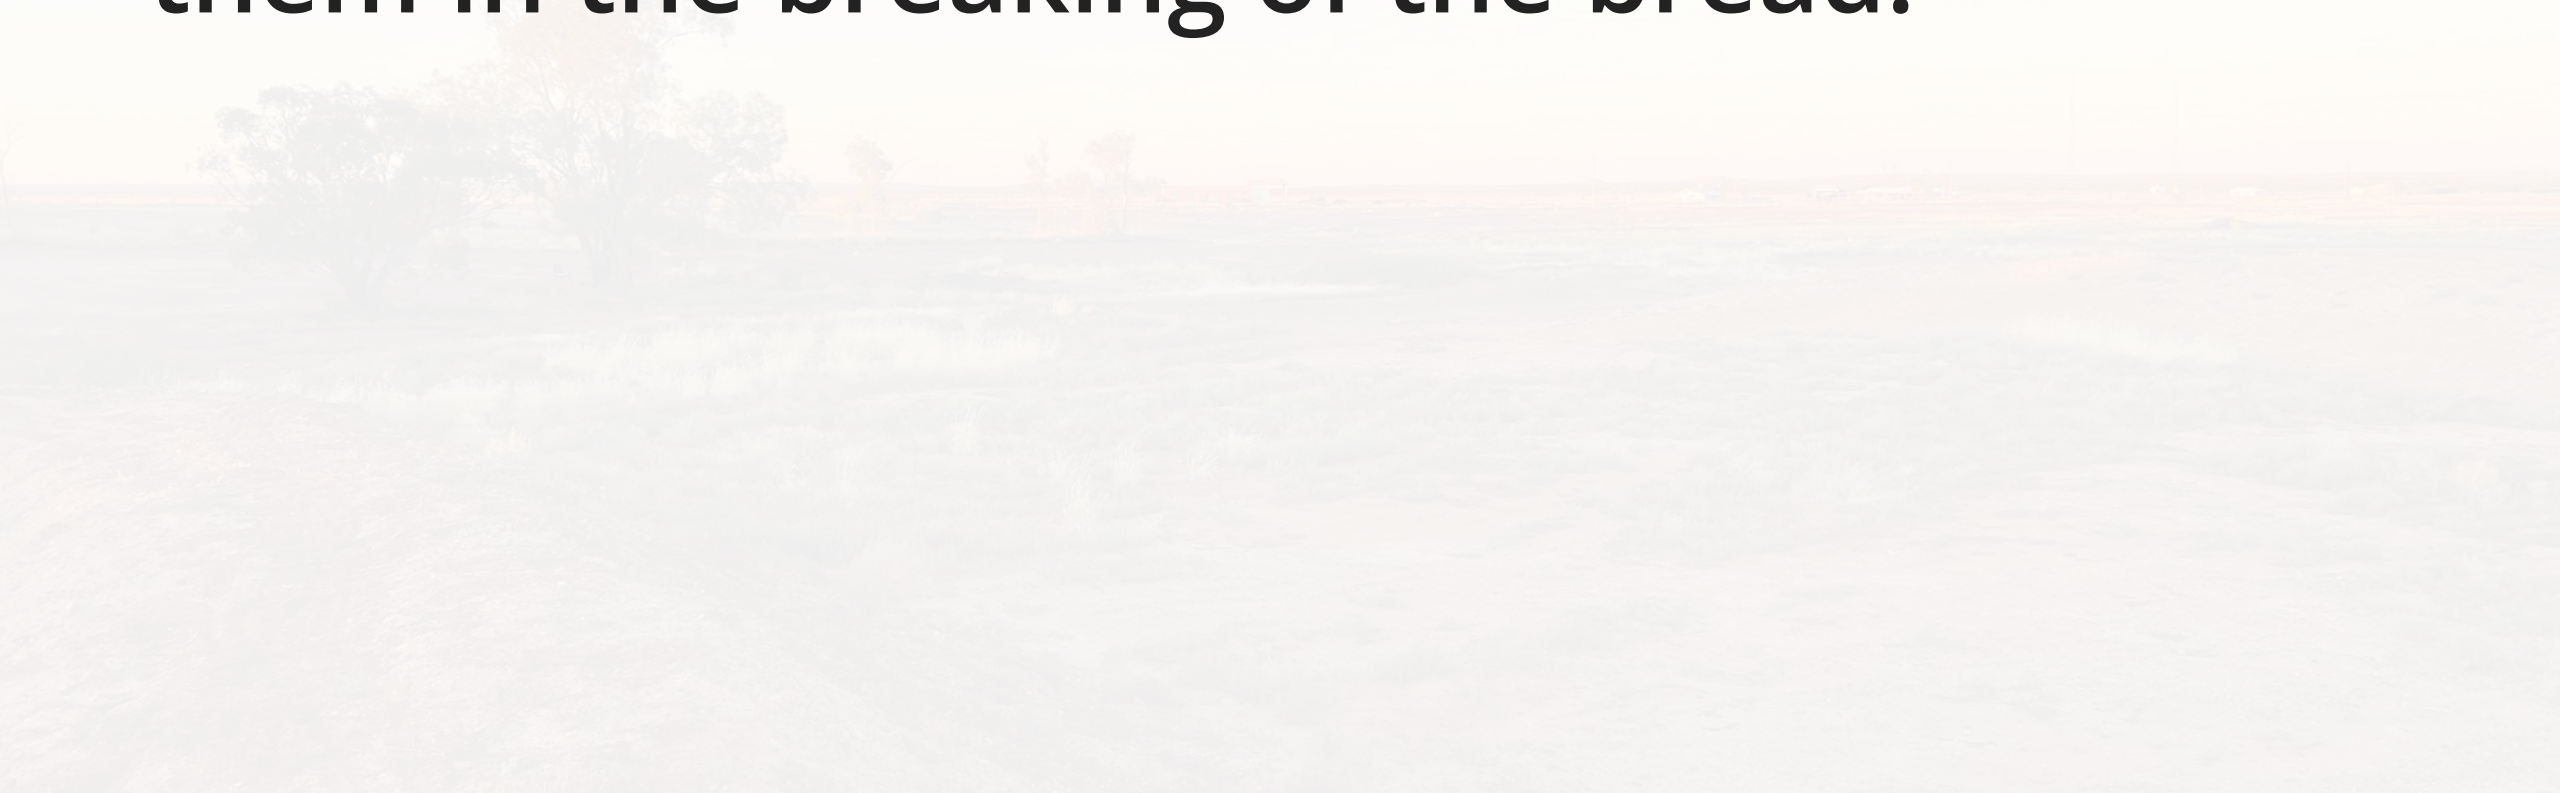

Then their eyes were opened, and they recognised him; and he vanished from their sight. They said to each other, “Were not our hearts burning within us while he was talking to us on the road, while he was opening the scriptures to us?”

Continued...

That same hour they got up and returned to Jerusalem; and they found the eleven and their companions gathered together.

They were saying, "The Lord has risen indeed, and he has appeared to Simon!"

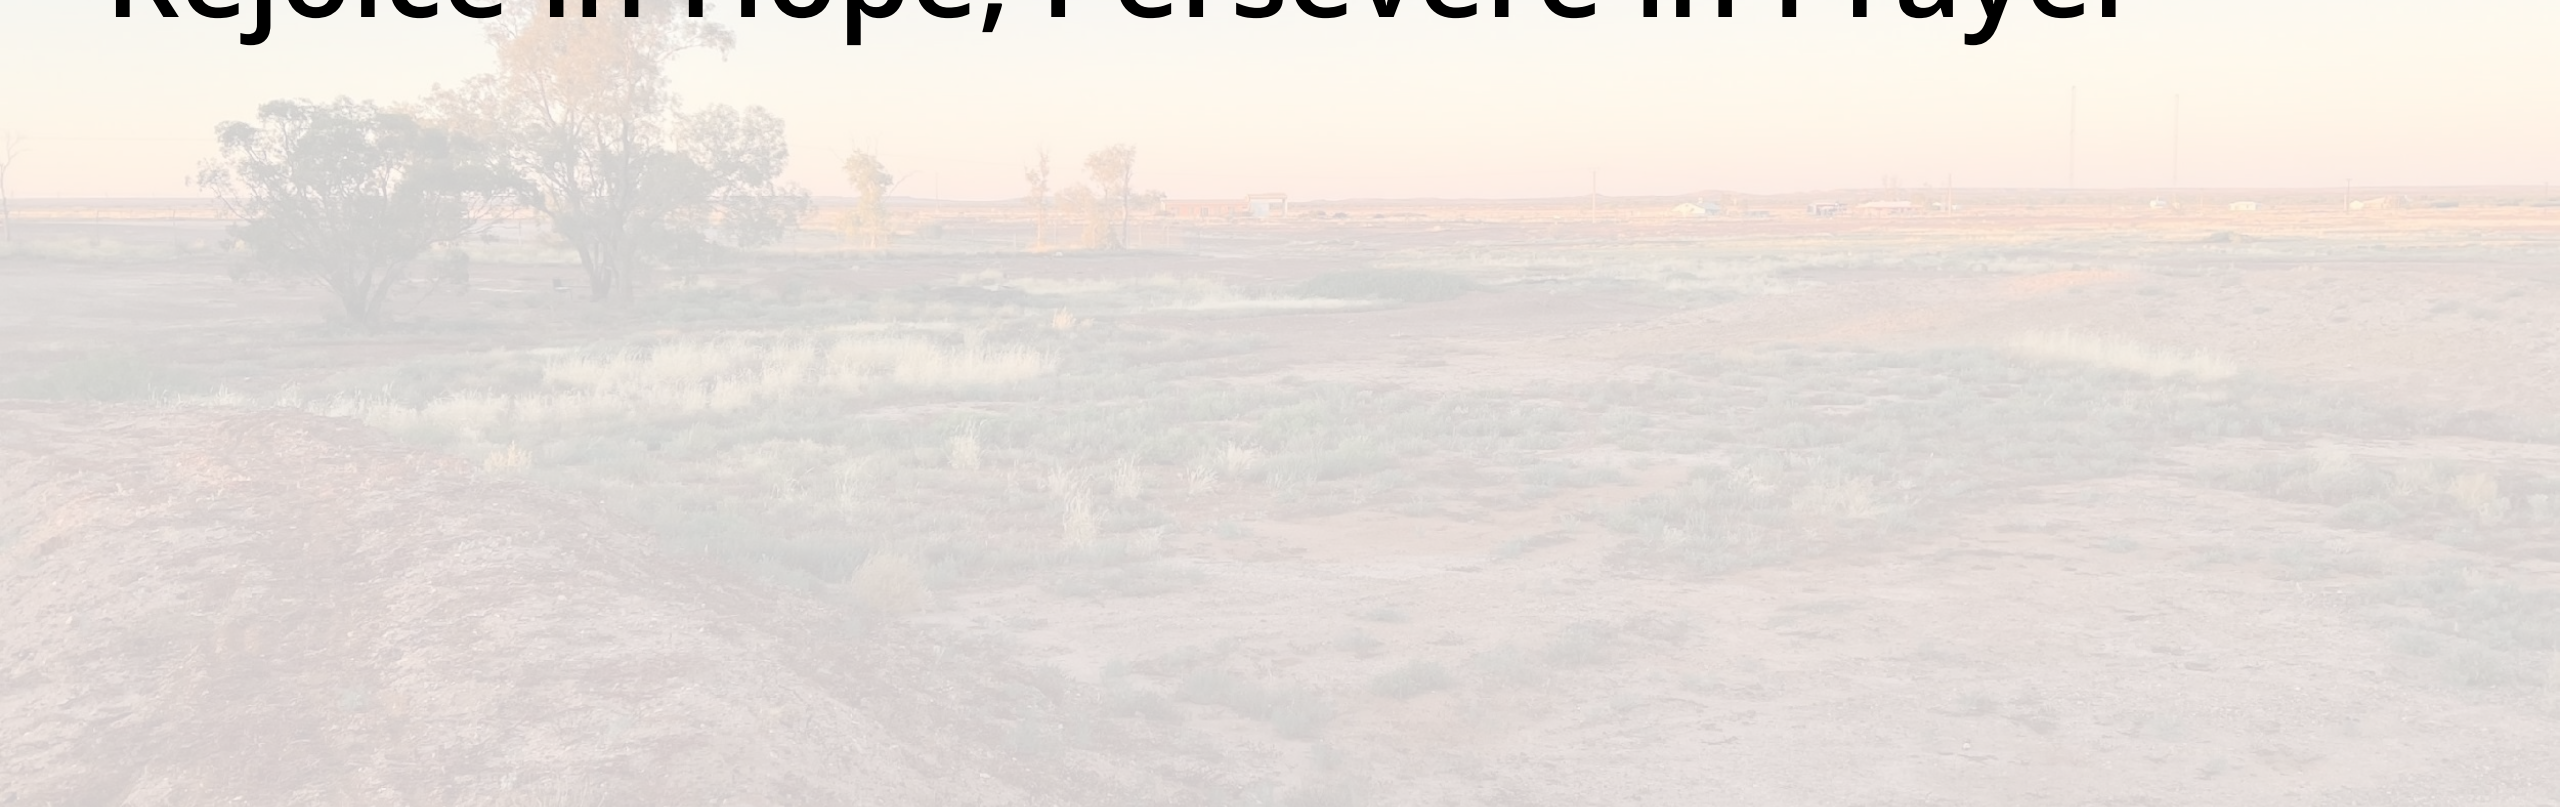

Then they told what had happened on the road, and how he had been made known to them in the breaking of the bread.

Romans 12:9-15

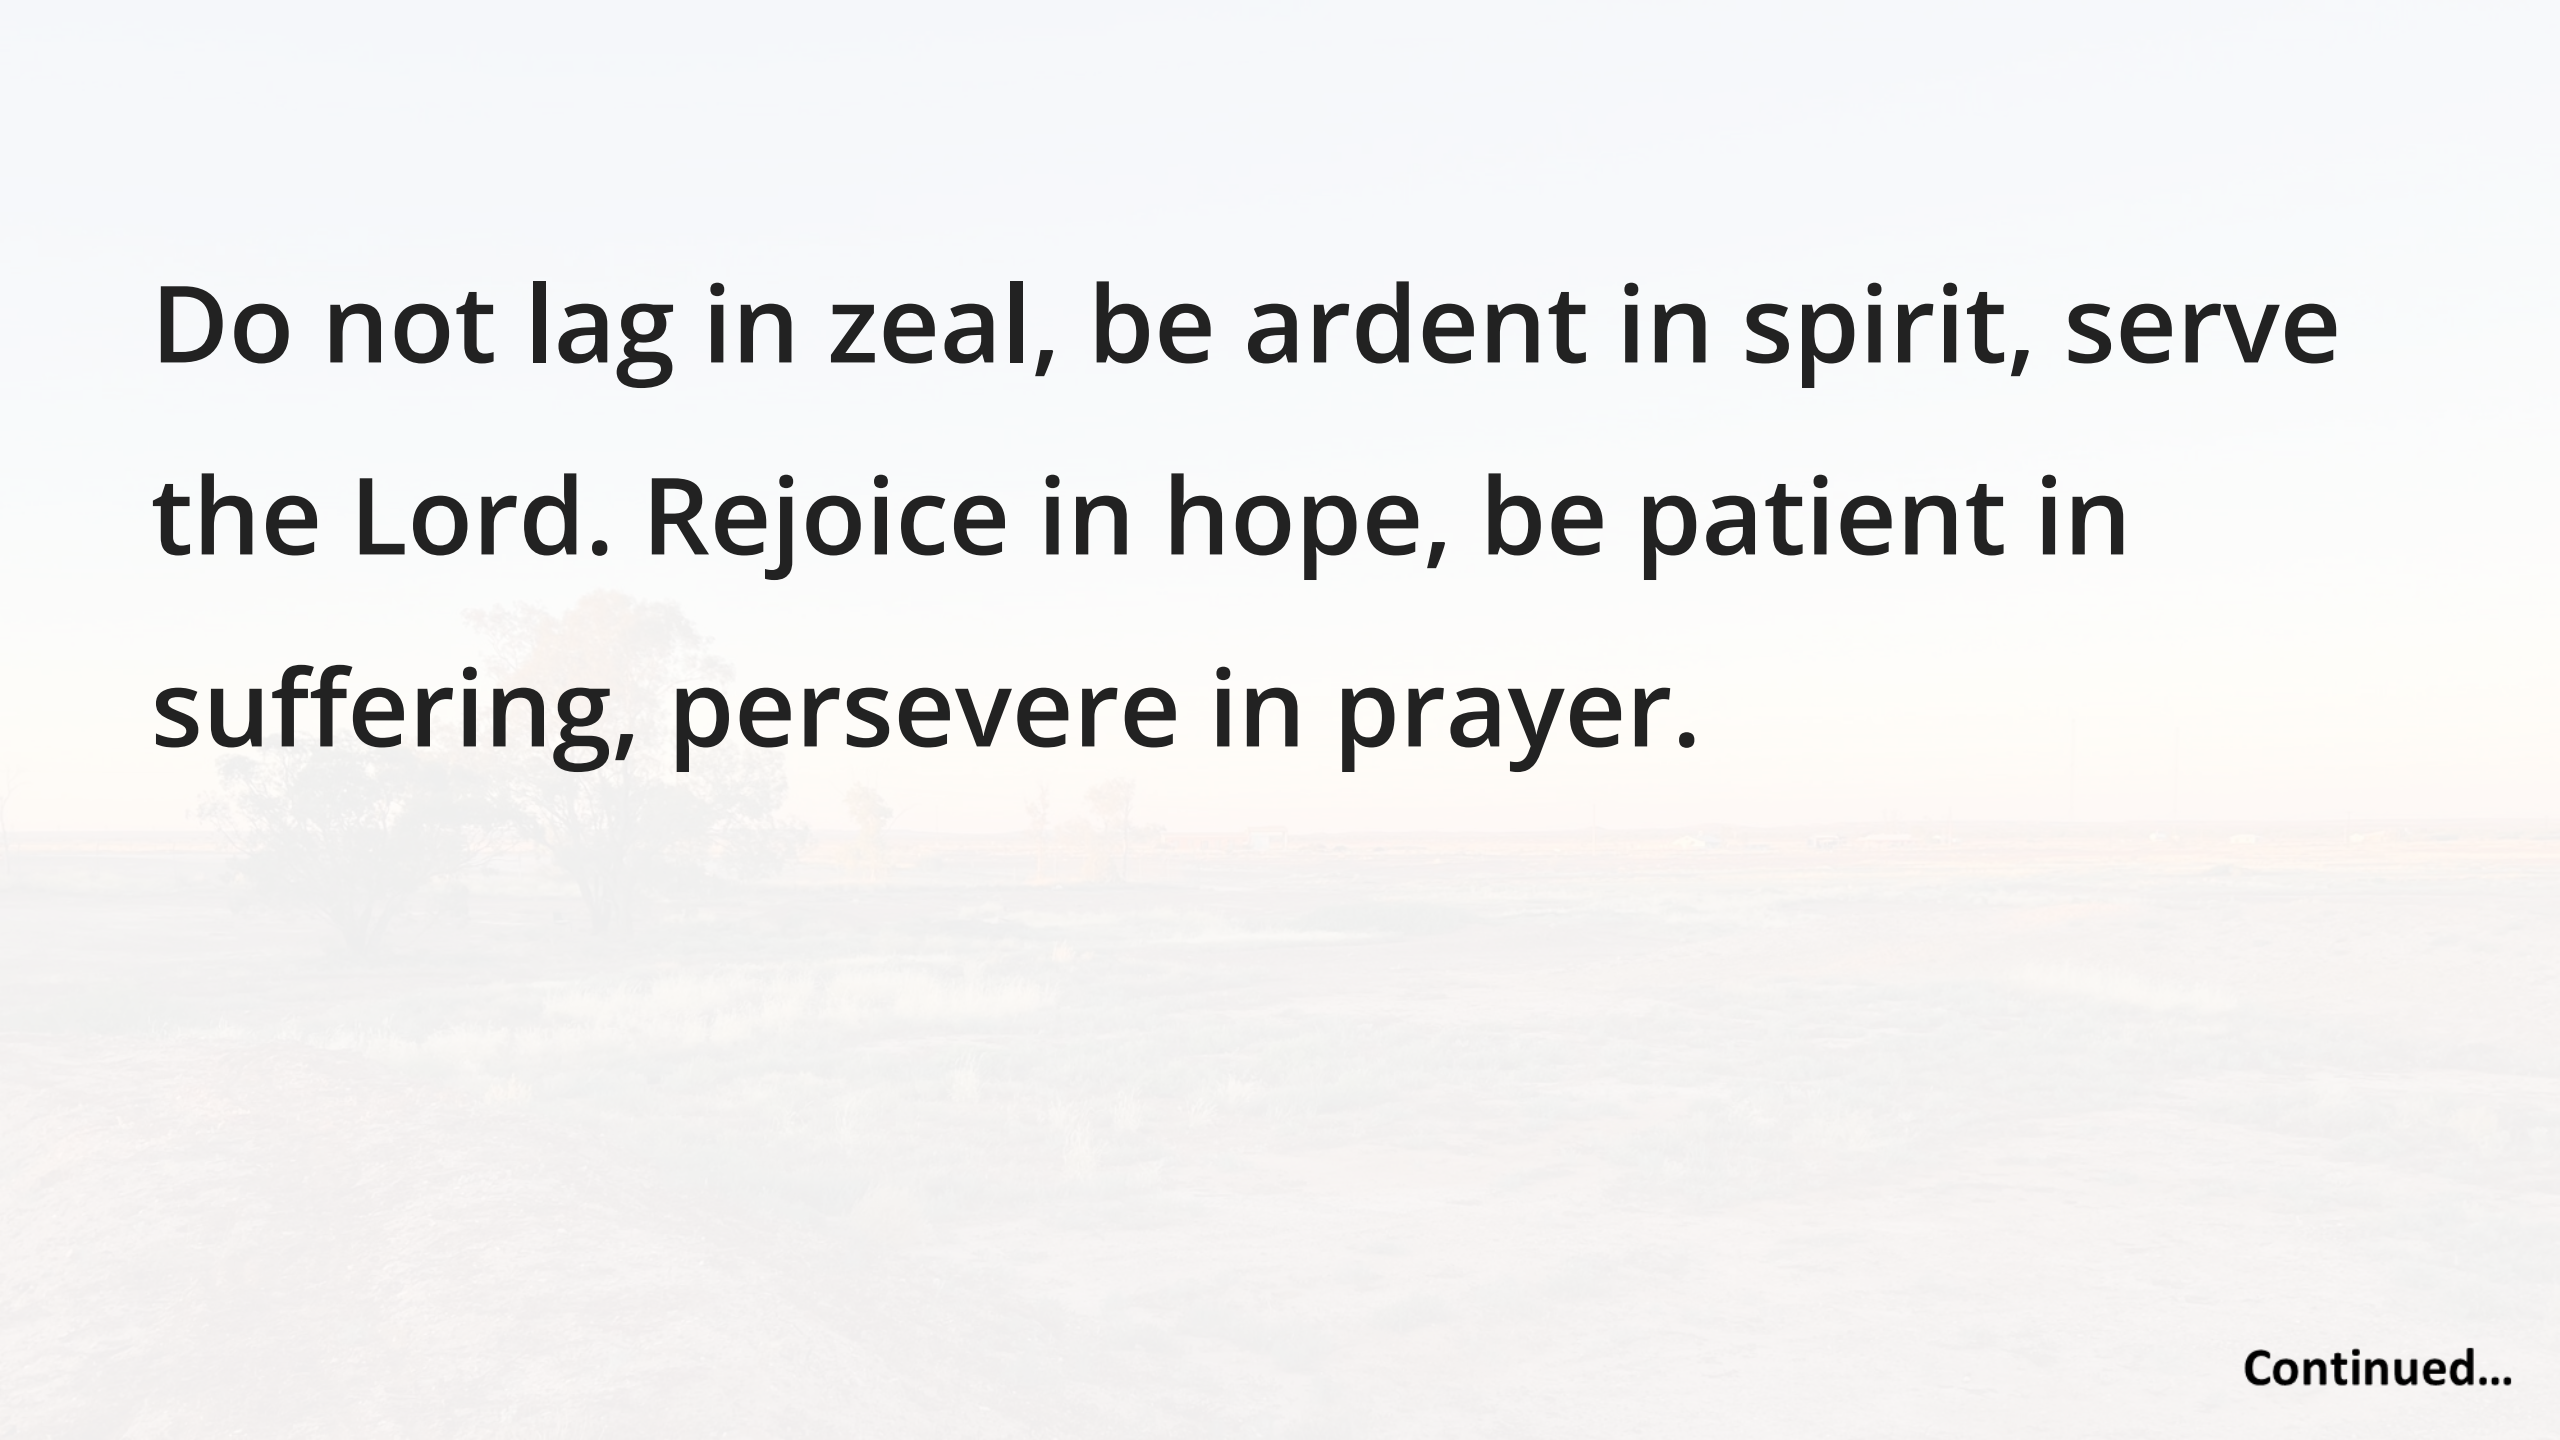

Rejoice in Hope, Persevere in Prayer

Let love be genuine; hate what is evil, hold fast to what is good; love one another with mutual affection; outdo one another in showing honor.

Continued...

Do not lag in zeal, be ardent in spirit, serve the Lord. Rejoice in hope, be patient in suffering, persevere in prayer.

Continued...

Contribute to the needs of the saints;
extend hospitality to strangers.

Bless those who persecute you; bless and do not curse them. Rejoice with those who rejoice, weep with those who weep.

Isaiah 40:27-31

The Lord Shall Renew Their Strength

Why do you say, O Jacob, and speak, O Israel, “My way is hidden from the Lord,
and my right is disregarded by my God”?
Have you not known? Have you not heard?

Continued...

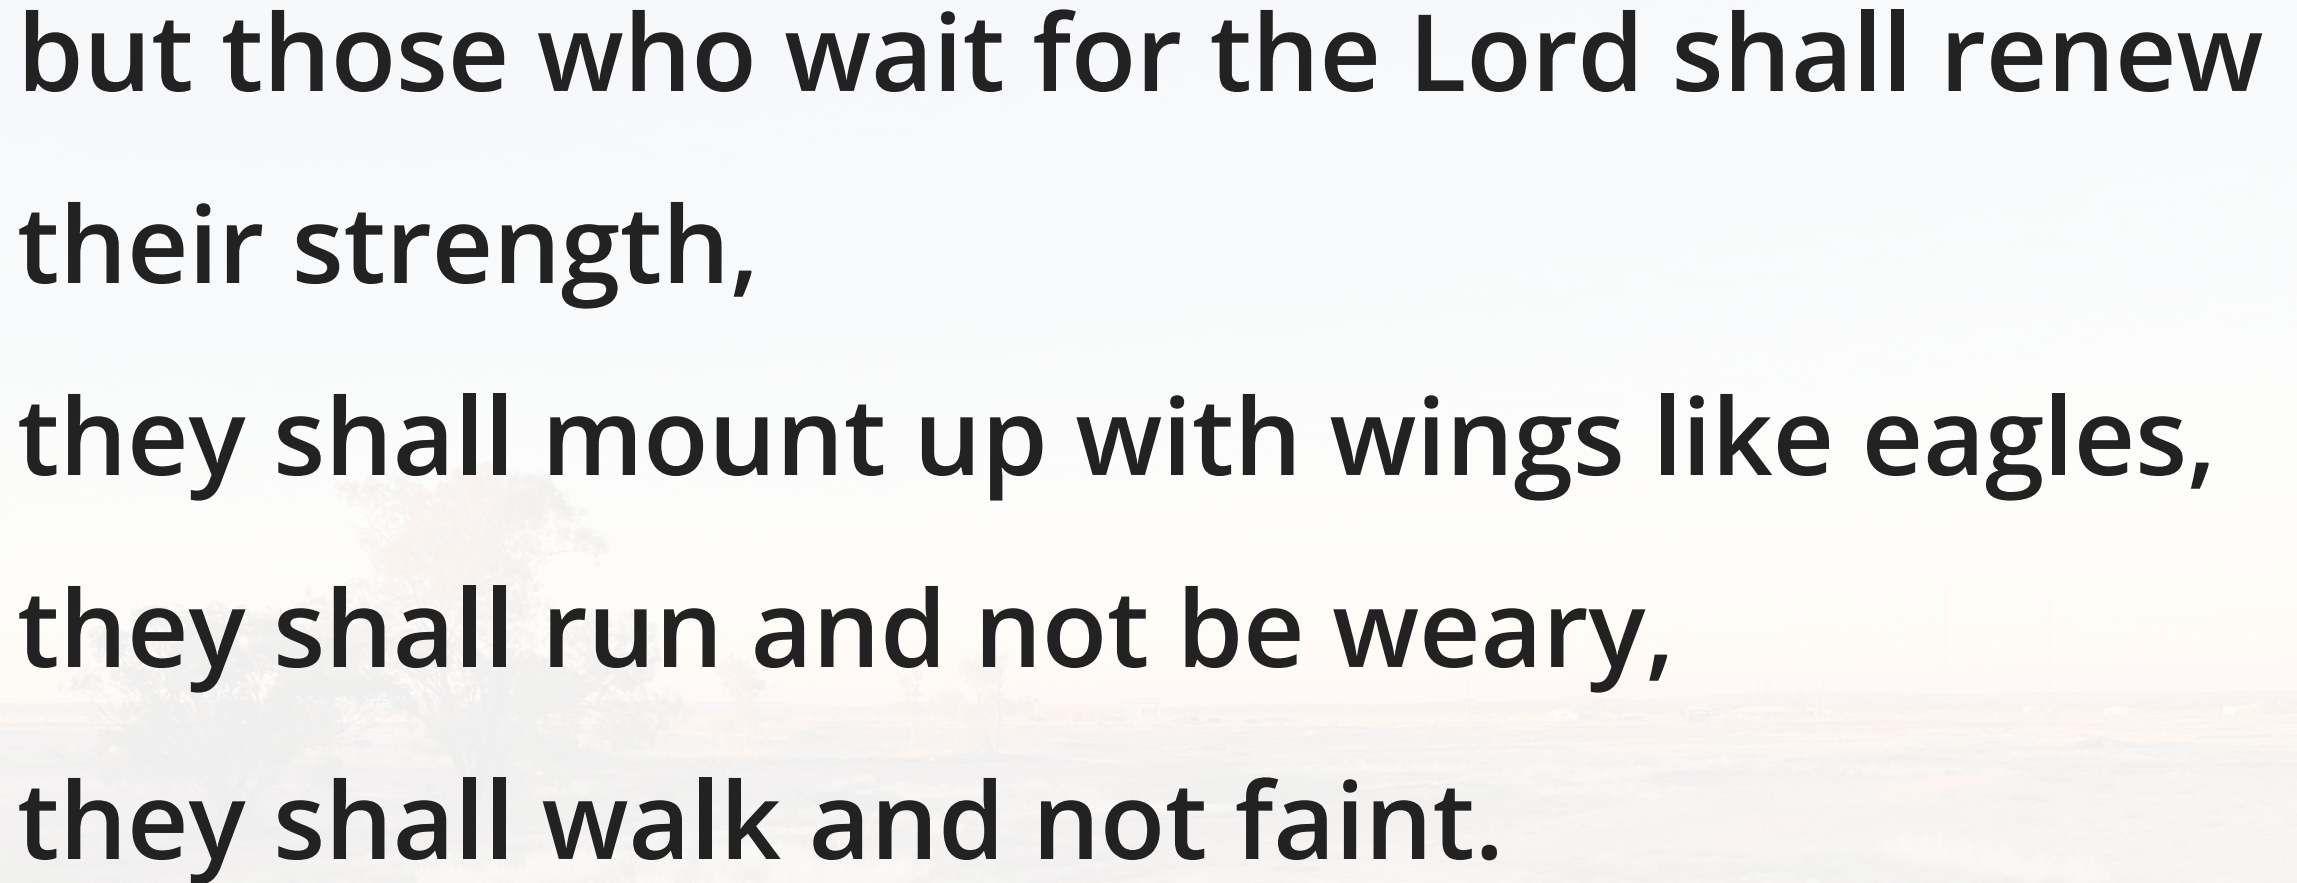

The Lord is the everlasting God,
the Creator of the ends of the earth.
He does not faint or grow weary;
his understanding is unsearchable.

Continued...

He gives power to the faint, and strengthens the powerless.
Even youths will faint and be weary,
and the young will fall exhausted;

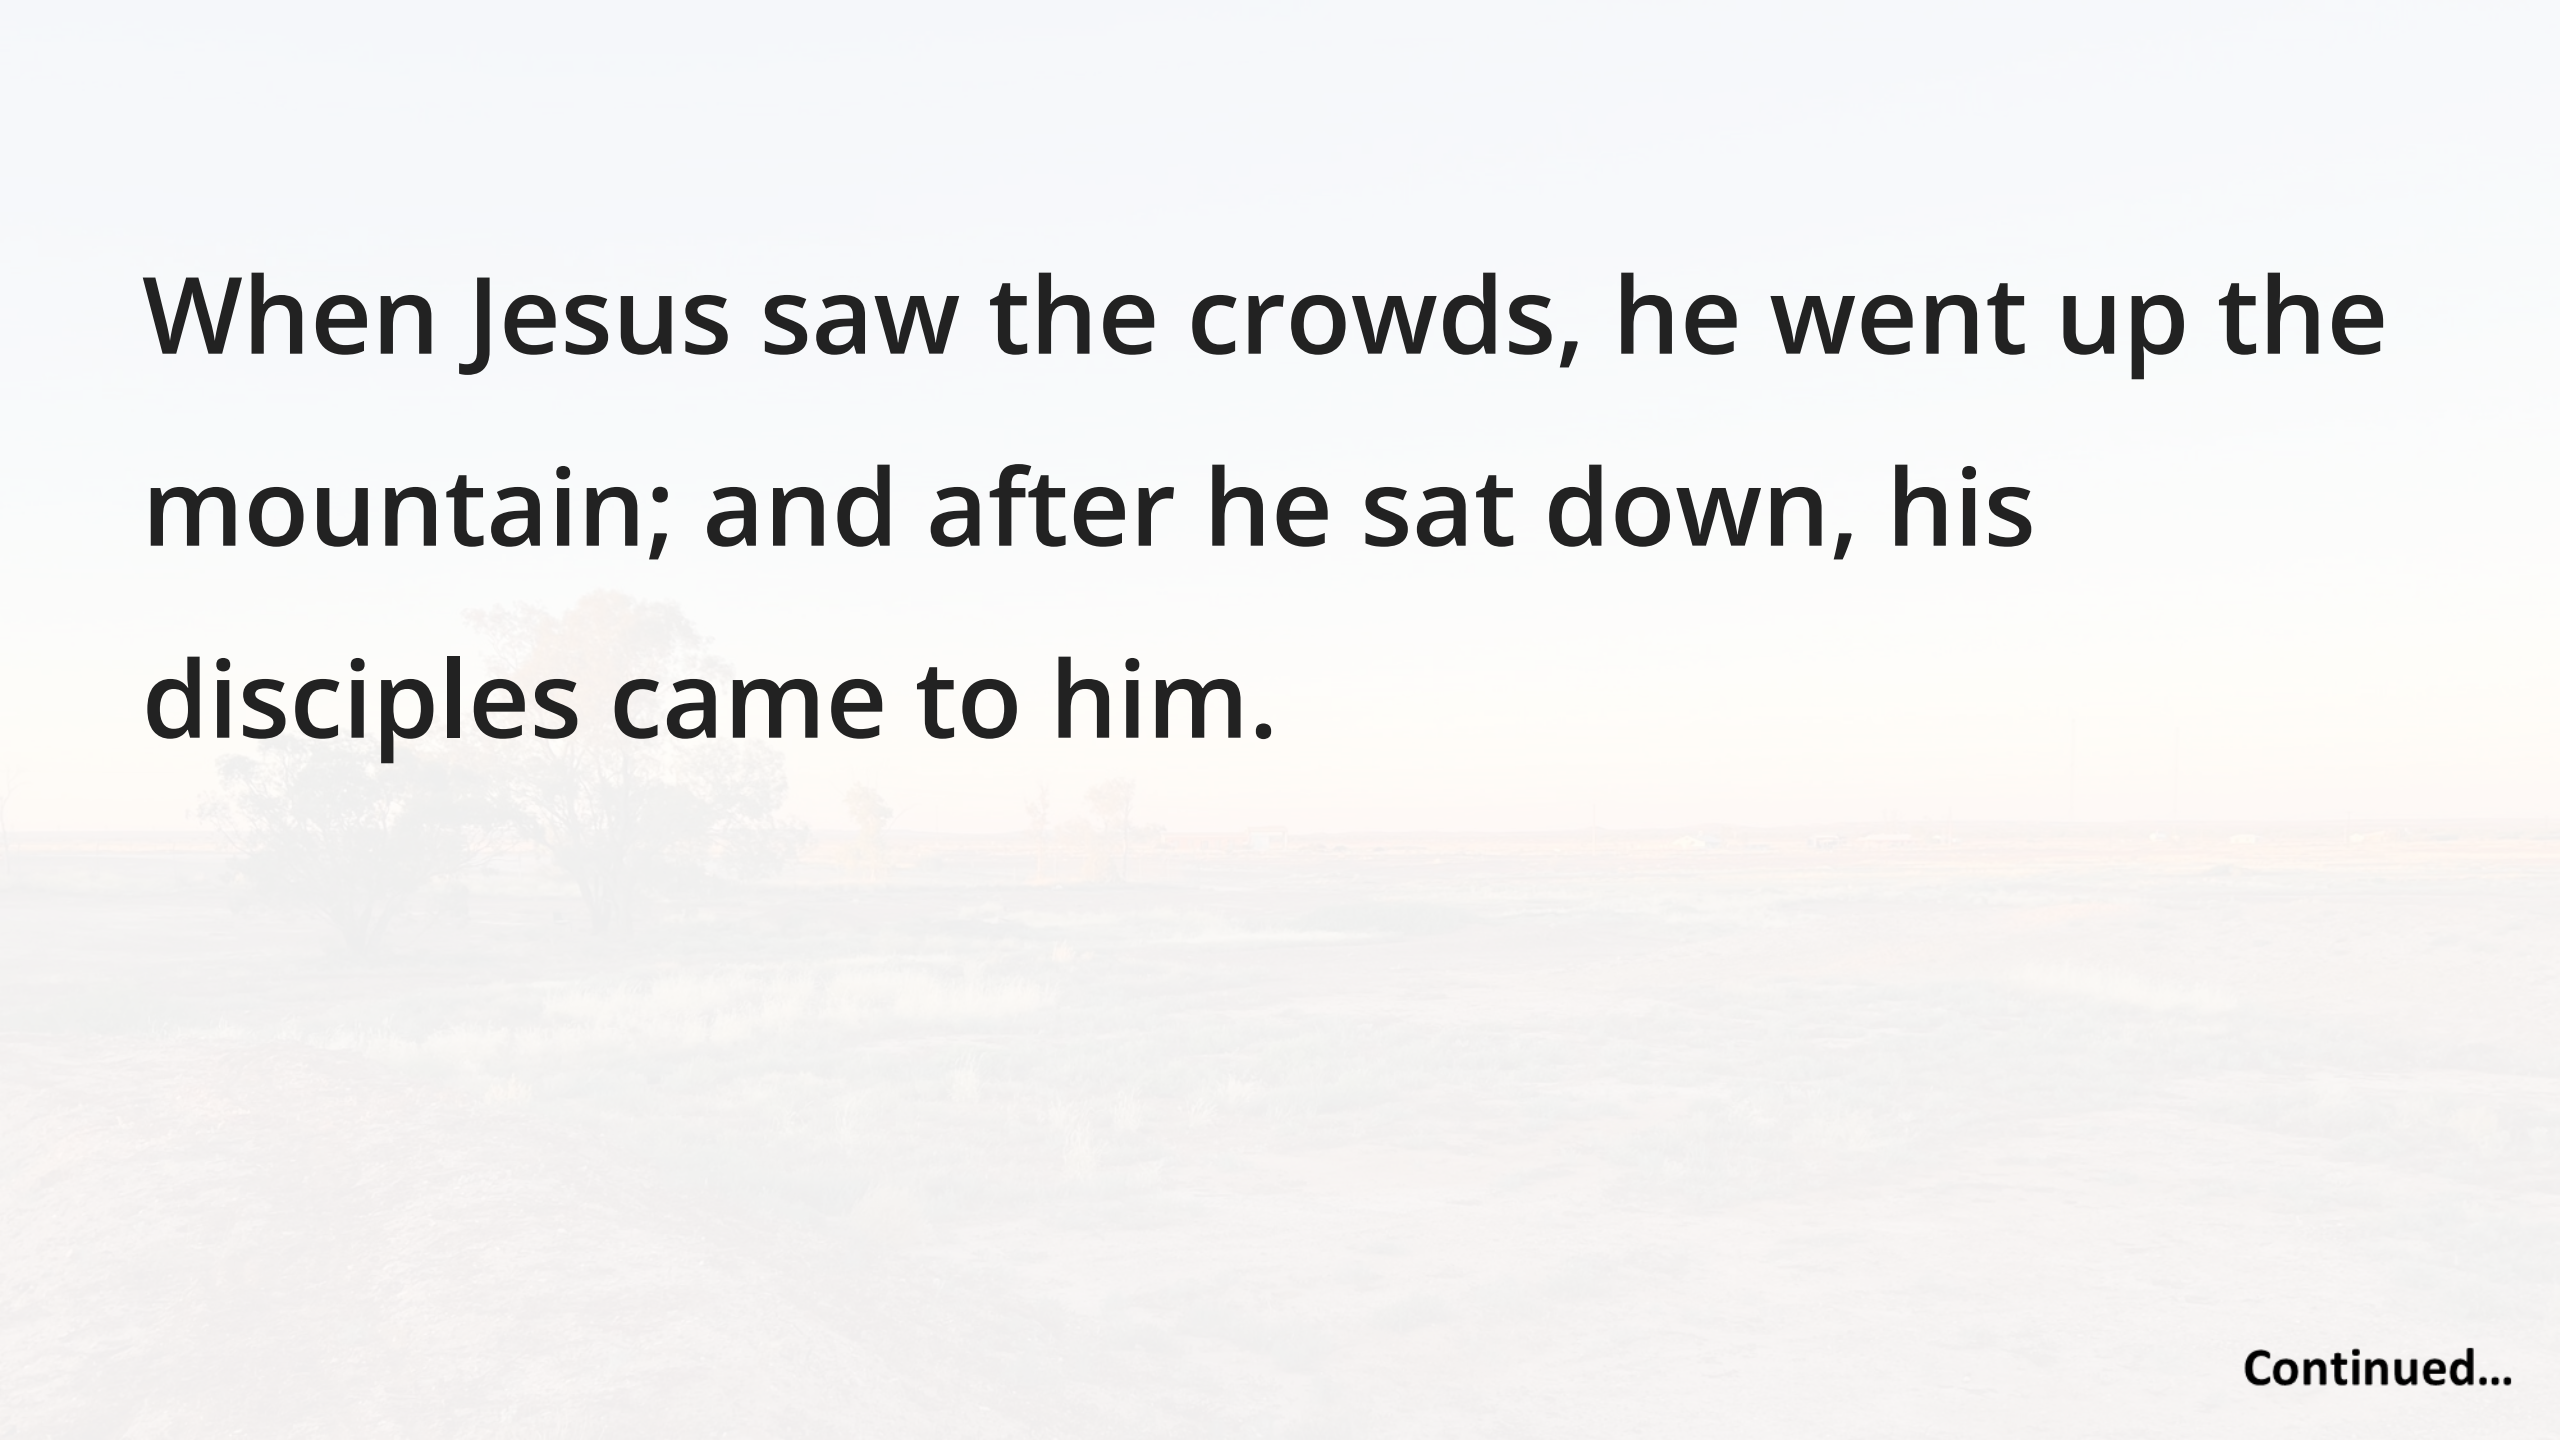

but those who wait for the Lord shall renew their strength,
they shall mount up with wings like eagles,
they shall run and not be weary,
they shall walk and not faint.

The Beatitudes

A faded background image of a landscape. On the left, there are several trees with green and brown foliage. The middle ground shows a field of tall grass or reeds. In the distance, there are some buildings and a horizon line under a pale sky.

When Jesus saw the crowds, he went up the mountain; and after he sat down, his disciples came to him.

Continued...

Then he began to speak,
and taught them, saying:

“Blessed are the poor in spirit, for theirs is the kingdom of heaven.

Continued...

“Blessed are those who mourn, for they will be comforted.

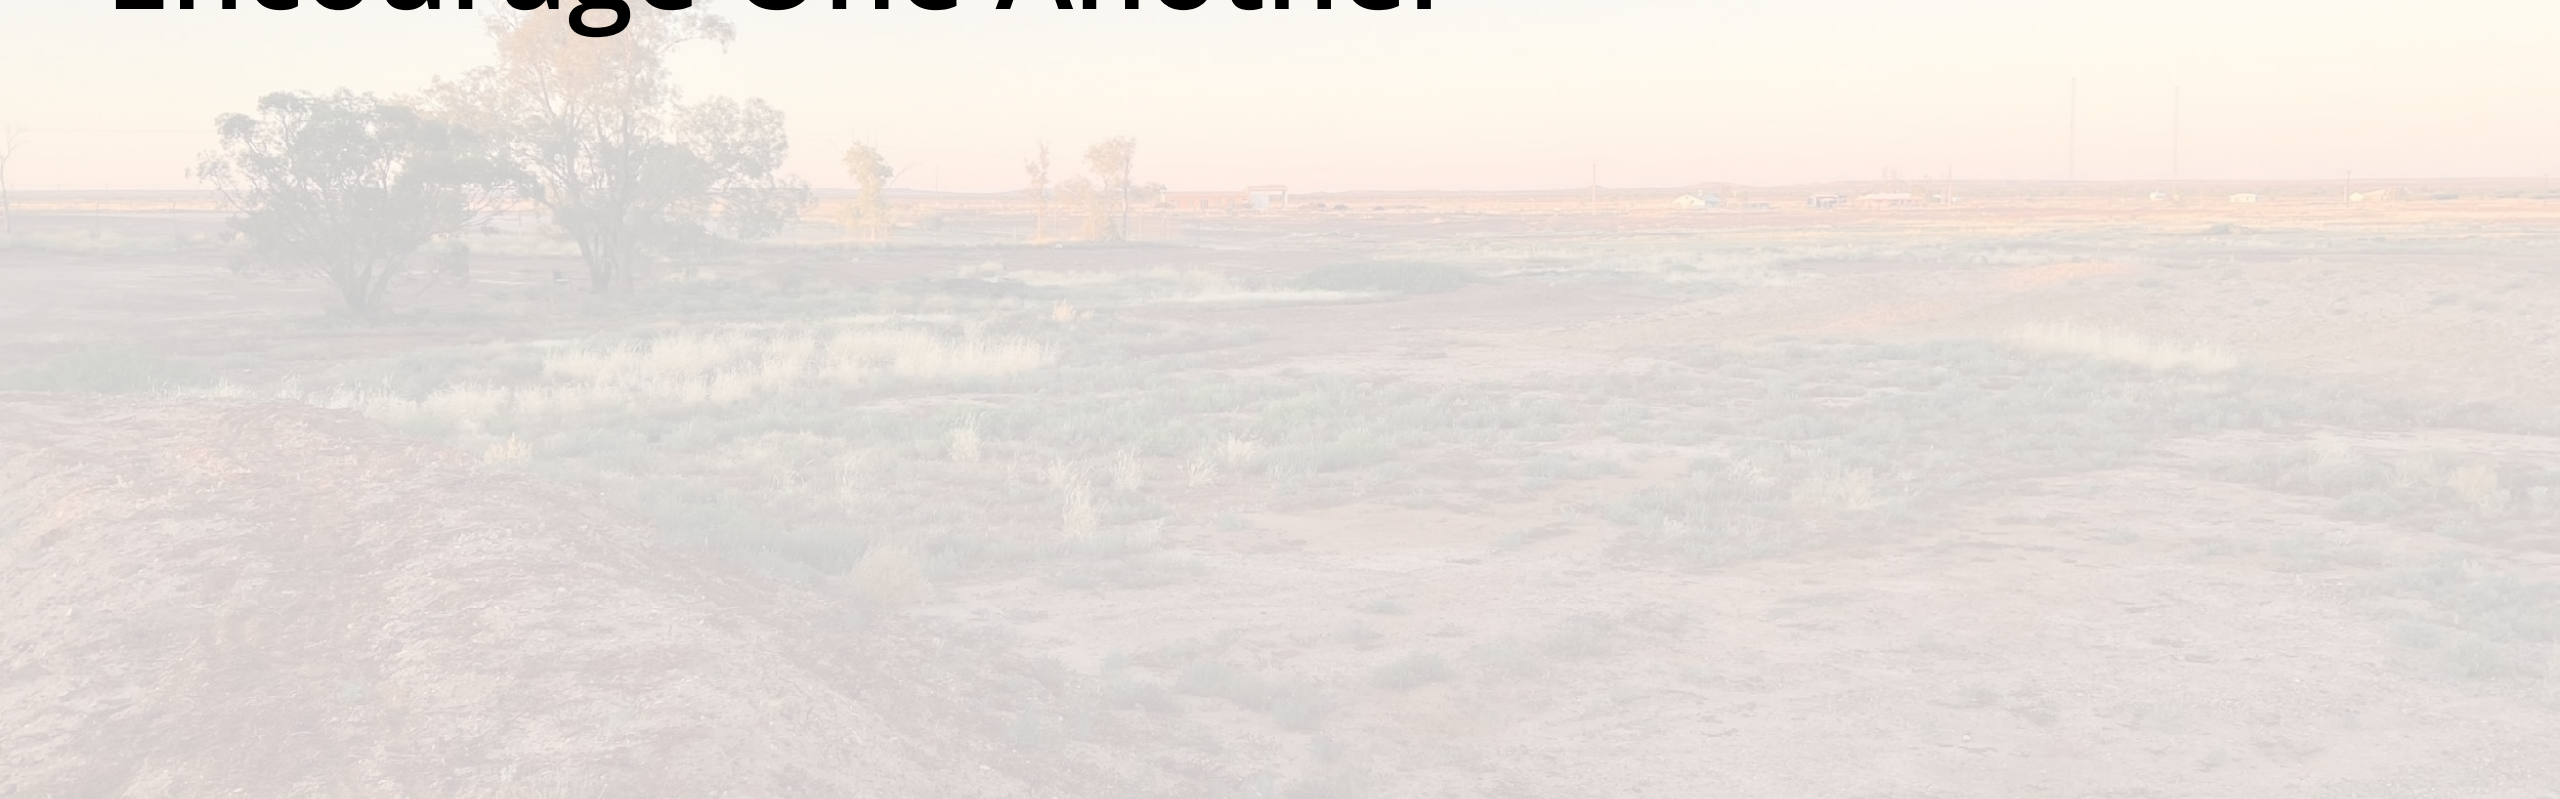

“Blessed are the meek, for they will inherit the earth.

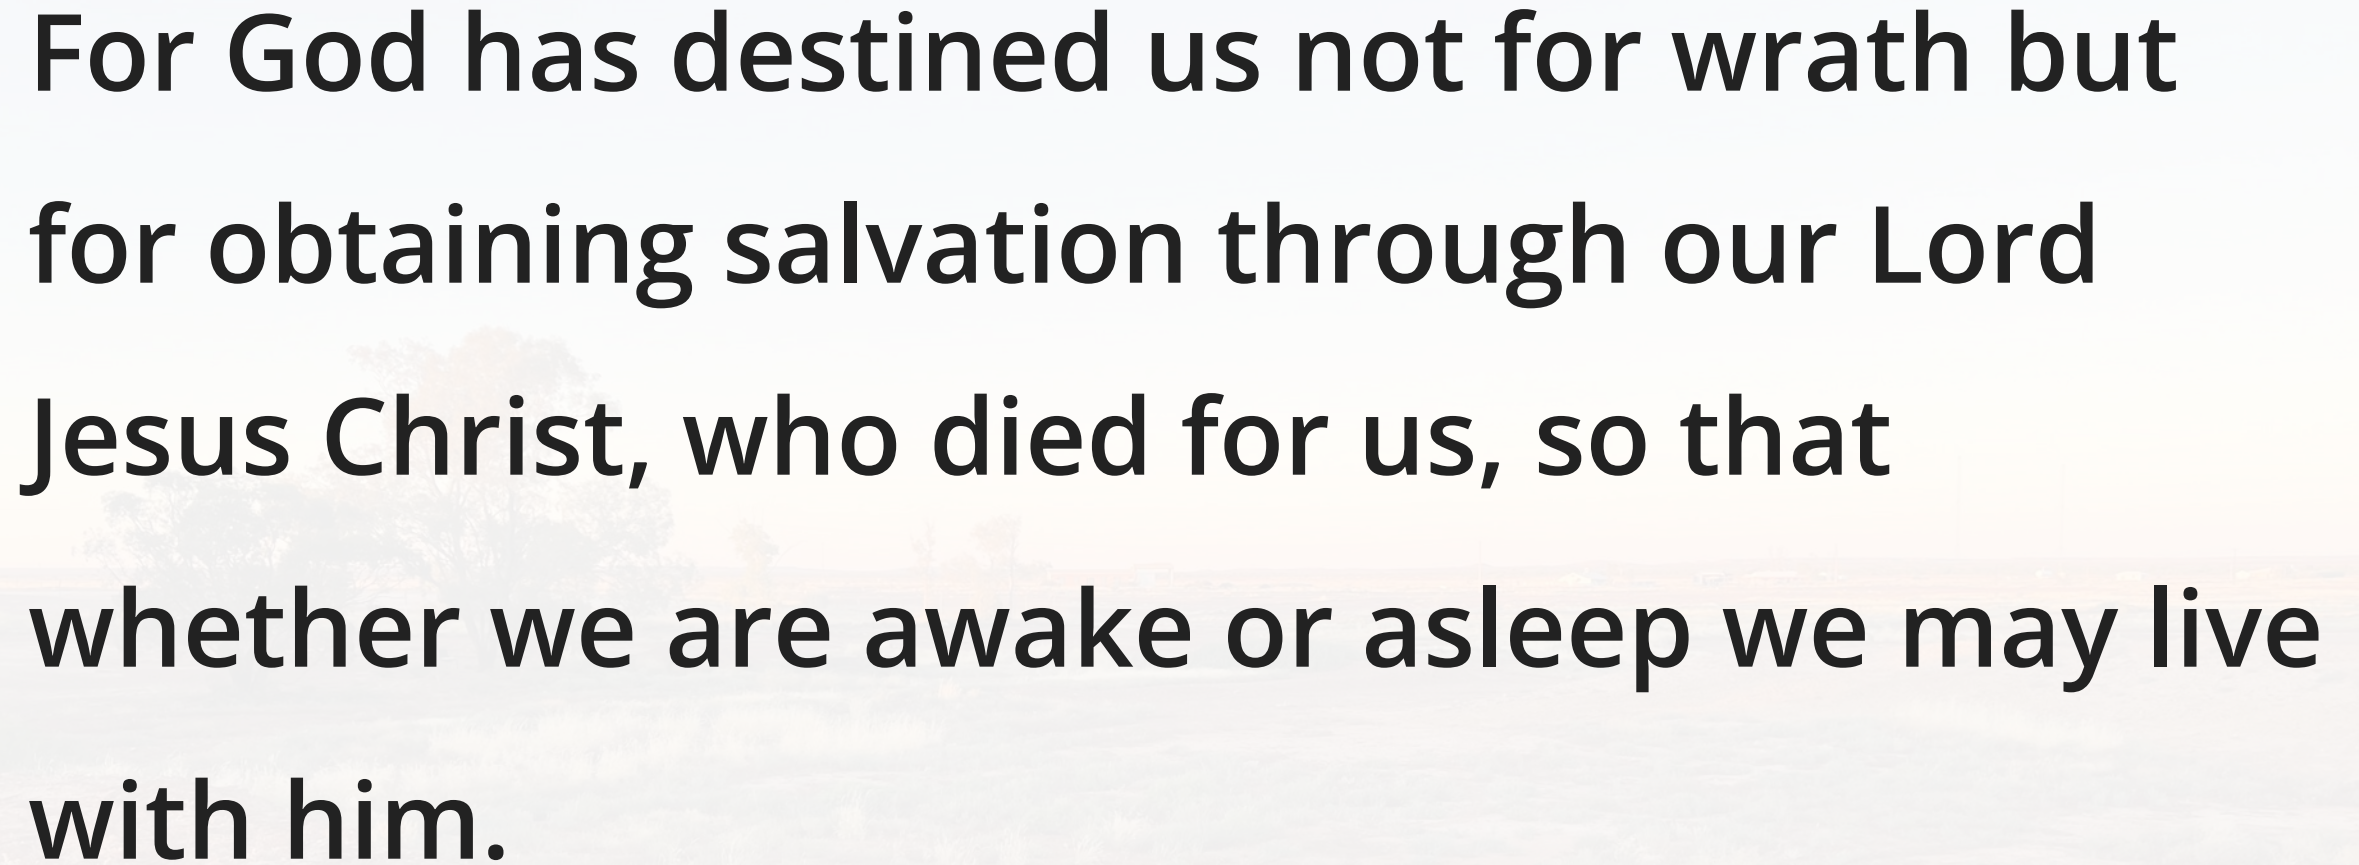

“Blessed are those who hunger and thirst for righteousness, for they will be filled.

Encourage One Another

For God has destined us not for wrath but for obtaining salvation through our Lord Jesus Christ, who died for us, so that whether we are awake or asleep we may live with him.

Therefore encourage one another and build up each other, as indeed you are doing.

Prayer of Confession

O God, our Heavenly Father, who hast bound us together as one family and home, accept our thanks for Thy love and care.

Continued...

Thou hast guarded us through the days and watched over us through the nights.

Continued...

Thou hast granted us health and joy, and food and clothing, and the precious gifts of sight and hearing, and speech and knowledge.

Continued...

Thou hast surrounded us with friends, and the best and truest friendship of our parents' love, and constant defense and help.

Continued...

Above all, Thou hast given us Thy greatest gift, of Jesus Christ Thy son, who loved us, and gave Himself for us.

Continued...

We confess to Thee our sin and faults; our wrong thoughts our selfish feelings; our false or cruel or evil words;

Continued...

all the untrue things we have done; and all the right things we have left undone.

Continued...

Forgive us, dear Heavenly Father, we beseech Thee who art all-holy and pure.

Continued...

Send, also, into our hearts love to Jesus Christ, and the help of Thy Holy Spirit; to give us right thoughts, and to make our wills strong, and true, and pure, to do good.

Continued...

Save us from falling into temptation. Let us remember that we have been baptised into Thy holy name,

Continued...

and have borne upon our brows the sign of a sacred vow to be Thy children, pure and loyal to Thee.

Guide us by Thy truth in Thy way.

Continued...

Make us use our knowledge and strength in being kind, courteous, and helpful to others around us, and obedient to those who are over us.

Continued...

So. by Thy grace, may we win the “Well done, good and faithful servant!”
from Jesus Christ, our Lord.

Amen.

Prayer of Thanksgiving

Almighty God, Father of all mercies, we Thine unworthy servants do give Thee most humble and hearty thanks for all Thy goodness and loving-kindness to us, and to all men.

Continued...

We bless Thee for our creation, preservation, and all the blessings of this life;
but, above all, for Thine inestimable love in the redemption of the world by our Lord Jesus Christ;

Continued...

for the means of grace, and for the hope of glory.

And, we beseech Thee, give us that due sense of all Thy mercies,

Continued...

that our hearts may be unfeignedly thankful, and that we show forth Thy praise, not only with our lips, but in our lives; by giving up ourselves to Thy service, and by walking before Thee in holiness and righteousness all our days;

Continued...

through Jesus Christ our Lord, to whom with Thee and Holy Ghost be all honour and glory, world without end.

Amen.

Prayer of Intercession

O God, we pray to Thee for the poor, the toiling, and the friendless;

asking Thee, O loving Father, to succour them through Thy Son;

Continued...

who, being rich, became poor, that He might be the Saviour of the poor, and needy, and lost.

Continued...

Defend and provide for all orphaned and fatherless children; and all who are widowed and helpless.

Strengthen them with Thy sympathy, and help them in their distress.

Continued...

Show Thy mercy, O Father, to the children in darkened lands, who have not heard of Christ's love;
or, in cities or the lonely
"bush," who have not been taught of His gentleness and compassion.

Continued...

Let Thy mission to grace go forth to win, and teach, and save them.

Bless all who are wronged, oppressed, and enslaved.

Enlighten the nations to set them free.

Continued...

We pray for our friends everywhere.

Keep their feet from falling, their eyes from tears; and preserve them and us in the land of the living.

Continued...

(We pray Thee to keep, and guide, and bless our dear parents, and our brothers and sisters; make their hearts and lives glad with Thy peace and joy).

Continued...

Make us able to forgive and help others: even as we would that they should forgive and help us.

Hear this, our prayer, through the love of Jesus Christ, our Lord.

Amen.

A Family Prayer

Our Heavenly Father, whose tender mercies are over all Thy works, look down upon us this morning, we beseech Thee, in Thy love and pity.

Continued...

May the Spirit of grace and truth rest upon us, and accompany us through all the events of this day, enabling us to fulfil its duties, to bear its trials, to resist its temptations,

and to embrace the opportunities it brings of doing good.

May He deepen in our hearts the sense of sin, and make us hate it with a stronger hatred.

Continued...

May we, who dwell together under this roof, be kindly affectionate one to another,
with brotherly love,
forbearing and forgoing
one another, even as God for Christ's sake hath forgiven us.

Continued...

May our friends and relatives be cared for by Thee, and,
while in the world,
be kept from the evil of it.

Hear the cry of the poor and the afflicted;

Continued...

and imbue the hearts of Thy people with great compassion for their brothers and sisters who are in need;

and for the ignorant, and them that are out of the way

Continued...

O send forth Thy light and Thy truth to the ends of the earth;

let all flesh see the salvation of our God.

Amen.
